

Kummallisen kodikas

Merikarvia is located in the Satakunta region, Western Finland, near the city of Pori. The town's unique archipelago scenery invites you to come and relax in the beautiful nature. The vital coastal town is known for its lively Merikarvia River and beautiful Oura archipelago.

Merikarvia, the small country parish of 3,100 inhabitants is a lively and versatile rural municipality that provides activities all year round. The river and the sea provide many possibilities for spending holiday.

MUSEUMS AND SIGHTS

Merikarvianjoki River

The Merikarvianjoki River begins from the north end of Isojärvi and flows into the Bothnian Sea from Merikarvia. The length of the river is approximately 27 kilometers, the drop height to the sea level is 35 meters and the average flow rate is ca 15m³/sec. There are about 6 kilometers of rapids and streams in the area. Migrating fish have a clear route upstream from the sea for the entire length of the river. Read more: merikarvianjoki.fi

Galleria Vanha Savu – Art gallery Vanha Savu

Varvintie 15, Merikarvia. Open Tue-Sun 11-17

Tapio Ristimäki, p. +358 500 862 190
Raimo Stenroos, p. +358 400 830 789
The Oura archipelago is located in the Bothnian Sea National Park, about 10 km from the mainland. The main island Ouraluoto has several tourist services. It can be reached by the harbour of Krookka. Nature lovers are especially attracted by the birds, which include sea eagles and cormorants. Built in the 1850s, Oura Pooki once steered sailors in the right direction towards Merikarvia Harbour. The Oura archipelago is conveniently reached by boat from the harbour of Krookka. Its former pilot station and Russian barracks are rented for accommodation use.
