

How to Order

Once you have found a product you would like to buy, you simply press the Add to cart button. Up until that point in the right hand area of the screen you should see the words '0 products in shopping cart'. As soon as you add a product to your basket this text changes to 'Go to shopping cart >' and this becomes a link which will allow you to view your basket at any time. From the Shopping cart view screen you can adjust the quantity of any product in the basket or delete products. After adjusting either the quantity or deleting an item, please press the Edit shopping cart button to see the results of the change you have made. At any point during your visit, you may select the Checkout button to complete your purchase.

Choose the methods for delivery and payment and select the Continue button. Please note that perishable products or alcohol are not sent outside France and the minimum age for buying alcohol is 18.

Fill in your personal details including delivery address and desired delivery date and select the Continue button.

A summary of your order, address information, payment and delivery methods is displayed. The total price does not yet include the delivery cost at this point. You can return to correct any detail by selecting Edit or continue shopping by selecting Go back to shopping cart.

Read the Terms of Service and click on the check box marked "I have read Terms of Service" if you accept them.

When all information on summary is correct, press the Purchase button to place your order.

How the Contract is formed

After placing an order, you will receive an e-mail from us confirming that your order is sent and the processing begins. We will double check availability and suitability for the chosen delivery method and determine the fee for delivery. If an item is temporarily unavailable or we cannot fulfil your order for other reason, we will let you know as soon as possible to suggest suitable alternatives. When sending you an e-mail with the final invoice where the cost for delivery is included the contract is formed. After receipt of a proof of payment the preparation of your delivery begins. All orders must be paid for in full prior to delivery.

Methods of Delivery

You can choose between the following delivery methods, possible fee will be added to the total amount due on the final invoice. The weight of each product is the weight of the contents, it does not include the package. Product packed in a glass jar, for example marinated herring weighs nearly the double compared to the nominal. The weight to be shipped includes also the weight of packaging material.

- 1) Postal delivery service by Chronopost to your desired address. Your parcel will be delivered the day after dispatch latest at 13h. Make sure to give us an exact address where you are present at this time. Delivery is insured against loss and damage and online tracking is possible.

This delivery method must be chosen for postal delivery of perishable goods within France. Frozen products will melt but still be refrigerated during postal delivery and should be used within a few days of arrival. This delivery method is not available for orders outside France

- 2) Postal delivery service Colissimo to your desired address within 48 hours of dispatch in France, 4 days to neighbouring EU countries. Insured against loss and damage and online tracking is possible.

This delivery method must be chosen for orders outside France. This delivery method may be chosen for orders without perishable products in France.

It is the responsibility of the customer to ensure that the delivery address and contact details are correct. Failure to do so may result in the order being returned to the Company and an additional delivery charge will be incurred.

We aim to dispatch your order within 2 working days (weekends and public holidays are not classed as working days) after receipt of proof of payment if nothing else is mutually agreed. Because we use a third-party delivery service, the times of delivery are estimates and not guarantees. However, please let us know if you do not receive your order in good time and we will look into the matter.

Unfortunately, we can not deliver any fresh, frozen or other perishable products and alcohol outside France. We reserve the right to refuse to send any item we feel unfit or illegal to post. Orders for delivery outside France may be subject to customs brokerage fees, import duties, and taxes after the shipment reaches the destination country. Additional charges are the responsibility of the recipient because we have no control over these government-imposed charges and cannot determine what they may be. Customs policies vary greatly among countries. Please contact your local customs office for information.
