DECISIONS MADE AT THE GENERAL FUND MEETING AND BY THE BOARDBENEFITS

The November General Fund Meeting decided on the maximum compensations to be paid effective as of January 1, 2023.

Dental care	€350 annually
Eyeglasses	€300 every two years
Laser surgery	€300 lump-sum reimbursement
Funeral grant	€749
Aids	max. €100 annually and the same amount every two years for the same aid

75% of a doctors' fees is reimbursed

In addition, the €50 initial deductible on the purchase of medications is reimbursed

70% of a sleep apnea study is reimbursed

70% of a radiological procedure is reimbursed

70% of a laboratory test is reimbursed

70% of physiotherapy is reimbursed, max 12 times per calendar year

You must pay the fees charged by a private dentist first, and then submit the claim form to the Sickness Fund.

Kela does not approve the payment of compensation directly to the service provider unless a direct debit agreement has been concluded. There is a compensation cap on dental care, for which reason a direct debit agreement cannot be made with dental clinics.

MEMBERSHIP FEE

The membership fee is 1.80% of the member's salary subject to withholding tax, however at most €689.40 (€57.45/month) in one year.
