Greeting from Governor Anneli Taina, protector of the exhibition

As the protector of artist Ritva Luukkanen's exhibition in Kosovo, I would like to greet the public at the opening. I wish the best of success for the exhibition, and for the public to enjoy these art works made of Finnish stone. For us who have been part of the arrangements for the exhibition, it is of particular importance that it opens in the recently independent Kosovo. I hope this will be the beginning of a fruitful cultural cooperation between our countries.
