

FIRST ANNOUNCEMENT

5th bi-annual international student conference on

Spiritual Care and Health Professions: Context and Practice

A unique opportunity to meet international colleagues and friends and learn and discuss about your professional role regarding spirituality and spiritual care.

November 3 and 4, 2011 Moses & Aaron Church, Amsterdam

The conference is hosted by the Departments of Health Care of Reformed University of Applied Sciences, Zwolle
Christian University of Applied Sciences, Ede
InHolland University, Amsterdam

The objectives of the conference are to explore:

- The opportunities of spiritual care in clinical practice
 - The social context of spiritual care
 - The role of spirituality in illness and care
- The role of the professional in spiritual care
 - Personal aspects of spiritual care

The conference include the following speakers:

Prof. Kees Waaijman, Professor in spirituality, Radboud University Nijmegen, Netherlands
Spirituality in healthcare; conceptualization

Dr. Ton Bernts (NL), Director KASKI Expertise Institute for Religion and Society, Netherlands
Spirituality in today's secular society

Prof. Wilfred Schnepf, Nursing professor, University Witten/Herdecke, Germany
The relevance of spirituality in healthcare: a perspective of nursing science

Prof. Peter Draper, Head of Department of Health Professionals, University of Hull, England
Spiritual care in health care: state of the art

Dr. Linda Ross, Senior lecturer University of Glamorgan, Wales
Healthcare student's perceptions of spirituality and spiritual care

Dr. Martin Walton, Lecturer Spiritual Care, Protestant Theological University, Netherlands
The essence of spiritual care in health care

Dr. Carlo Leget, Associate Professor, Faculty Humanities, Tilburg University, Netherlands
Development of a guideline form spiritual care in the palliative care in the Netherlands

Dr. Bart Cusveller, Professor in Nursing ethics, Ede Christian University, Netherlands
Ethics of spiritual care

Dr. René van Leeuwen, Professor in Healthcare and Spirituality, Reformed University, Netherlands
The nurses role in spiritual care: development of competencies

Workshops

Workshops will take place focusing on the clinical and practical aspects of spiritual care. You are invited to send in an abstract (see call for abstracts).

Participants

International health care students (nursing, midwifery, medical e.g.) are especially invited for this conference. We also welcome health care practitioners and scholars.

Early registration needed

A minimum number of international participants are needed for this meeting to happen! Therefore we invite you to register early for this conference.

REGISTRATION FORM

Please return this form no later than April 1st, 2011, to studconf2011@gh.nl.

Name:

Address:

City:

Organisation:

Discipline:

Emailaddress:

Student or other professional:

Conference fee:

Students:

Registration before April 1st 2011: € 50

Other participants:

Registration before April 1st 2011: € 130,-

A fee of 20% will be added for registrations after April 1st, 2011

Payments

Payments should be made to:

Gereformeerde Hogeschool

Bankaccount: 57.14.69.531

Bank Identification Code (BIC/Swift): ABNANL2A

International bank Account Number (IBAN): NL34ABNA0571469531

Remark: Student Conference 2010/3910

Accommodation

Book directly. Amsterdam offers many opportunities for your stay at every price level.

Do you need more information: send an email to studconf2011@gh.nl.

Call for abstracts

5th international student conference on Spiritual Care and Health Professions: Context and Practice

November 3 and 4, 2011 - Moses & Aaron Church, Amsterdam

Focus

The workshop/presentation should focus on clinical and practical aspects of spiritual care in the health professions. A workshop/presentation will take 1 hour.

Invitation

Invited are: health care professionals/practitioners, educator, researcher. Students are especially invited to send in an abstract.

Content of the abstract (maximum amount of words: 250)

Title:

Name(s) presenter(s):

Organization/discipline of presenters:

Country:

Aim(s) of the workshop/presentation:

Summary of the content of the workshop/presentation:

Specific conditions/needs for the workshop/presentation:

Send your abstract to studconf1022@gh.nl no later than July 1st 2011.

