

Vedic Art Teacher Meeting / Johannes Källman

Saturday, November 11th at 10:00-17:00 in Helsinki

Vedic Art 30 years

Johannes talks about the last 30 years of progress and development of Curt Källman's method - Vedic Art! How it was to grow up in a family where Vedic Art was in great focus and how it affected his way of perceiving the world!

Curt's legacy - The eternal value of the method

The Principles, the original art exercise of the teachers' script and the main values of Curt is the foundation of the method. Johannes talks about the main values and the foundation of the program.

Am I a "real" Teacher or not?

How the teacher in Vedic Art needs to act differently than teachers in many other educations. How Curt saw the important role of the teacher as supporting the knowledge to grow and awake from within.

The "Sisu" of the Vedic Art Finland

Johannes compares his experience of teaching in ten different countries in Europe and gives his experience of the unique and quality of the program of Vedic Art in Finland. How the "Sisu" and great education quality of Vedic Art in Finland can inspire teachers of Vedic Art in Europe. "Brainstorm" on how make Vedic Art even stronger in Finland in future!

Seeking and finding new volunteers to represent Vedic Art in Finland

Maija Pitz Koponen, Marjaana Murto and Pirjo Hirvonen are this year handing some official responsibilities to new volunteers. Suggestions of names and qualifications of people who like to volunteer!

Pedagogical approach to students on the courses.

Johannes shares his learnings from Curt on how to connect with the students. Johannes shares his own insight of the experience of meetings and teaching students and teachers of the topics of art, life and personal development.

Expanding with quality and responsibility

How to support the method to get famous worldwide but never losing the unique essence!
